

CO-CREATOR INFORMATION FORM

When you become a Circle Connections Co-Creator, we will post information about your organization on our website along with a logo (if available) and a link to your website. We will also post news of your organization's events when submitted to us. Your responsibility as a co-creator is to provide a reciprocal link to Circle Connections on your website and inform your membership about Circle Connections and our events (either through your website or through your newsletter).
